DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on December 15, 2003 has been entered.

Drawings

The replacement drawing sheet of figure 1 was received on January 05, 2004. The drawing has been acknowledged and approved. The drawing correction sufficiently overcomes the drawing objections noted in the previous Office action.

Specification

The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities:

In paragraph 26, line 5, the word "value" should be changed to --- valve ---.

Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claim 4 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. There is no antecedent basis for "the heating means" (line 2) in the claim.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Fails (US 3,785,279). Fails discloses an apparatus for the production of wood boards, comprising: a press (10) having a plurality of platens (11); and means for regulating the temperature of the platens (see drawing), wherein the regulating means including: means for circulating (13, 16) a heating fluid such as superheated steam (col. 1, line 37) through the platens, means for detecting the temperature of the heating fluid (18) as it exits the platens, and means for responding to the detected temperature (17, 22) for heating the fluid supplied to the platens (col. 3, line 36 to col. 4, line 55).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claim 4 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Fails (US 3,785,279), in view of McClure, Jr. (US 4,365,547). Fails discloses a heating means to regulate heat flow (fluid/steam) to the press (col. 4, lines 13-44), Fails does not expressly disclose the heating means comprises a heat exchanger. However, the patent to McClures, Jr., in a closely related art, teaches that it is old and well known in the multi-platen pressing art to provide a pressing system (fig. 1) that has a heating means comprises a heat exchanger (col. 2, line 34) for controlling the heating temperature of the circulating fluid (col. 2, lines 23-67). Therefore, it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to substitute Fails's heating means with a heat exchanger, as taught by McClure Jr., in order to provide a better control of the heating temperature of the circulating fluid.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed on December 15, 2003 with respect to claims 1-4 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. The prior art listed on the attached PTO 892 are cited to show relevant platen presses with temperature control.
